FLOOR DEBATE

March 12, 2002 LB 1003

SENATOR DIERKS: Okay. How do you feel about the last part with the fee increase?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I hate it with a passion.

SENATOR DIERKS: It's a little better than the bill though right now, isn't it?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I...I cannot quantify my hatred by degrees. I hate...

SENATOR DIERKS: I see.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...the bill and I hate this, because here's why, Senator Dierks. This jumps the fee four dollars in one year. If they had said they only need a one dollar increase or whatever it is, then you're going to give them three extra dollars before they even say they need it, and they can't even tell us what they need it for anyway. So what they've done in this bill is to give themselves a telescoping of three extra dollars in...or four dollars in one year.

SENATOR DIERKS: Okay. Now tell me what happens if...I tried to follow Senator Beutler when he was talking about this, if he substitutes this motion or this amendment for the one he's got up there. And I don't...I didn't follow the part about if cloture is called. Do you vote on just the divided question that you're talking about at that time?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I...

SENATOR DIERKS: How do you...how do you talk...how do you do cloture on a divided question?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I will let Senator Beutler explain that, but he feels that it's the kind of thing that can head me off at the pass and get everything in this amendment voted on even though I would divide it.

SENATOR DIERKS: Okay. Could I...how much time do I have left, Mr. President?
